wish it he didnt
use another
website but
other than that
the class was good.

I am upset with
this course
since I took
this math class
in person to have the engagement
with the class
to learn from lecture. Turns
out this class
was completely
online and you
showed up in person to receive
participation points. The lecture was
prerecorded
youtube videos
to watch on your own then
if you have questions then
you could as
professor Holt
in person. For me I felt that
an in person
class should have the option
of lecture and
not watch a video. Then
the homework
is graded upon
entering the correct
passcode and I
often got them
done in time,
but would
upload the wrong one and that resulted in 50% credit
automatically
because I had to resubmit the
You only get
full credit if you submit the
one on time.
This system
felt like it was
for an online
class and it
does not add
up. I have a B,
but I almost
feel like I
should get another chance at this class. I am not

In all honesty,
Statistics is not necessarily a
class that most students are
excited to take.
However, if I
ever had to take this course again, I
would absolutely
choose Mr.
Holt over and over. He tries to make the
course as interesting as possible. His examples are
fun and keep you interested
even if the
math is tough
at times. Mr.
Holt also
responds
quickly when questions are
asked, and if you catch
something he didn't or find a
mistake in a
video, he immediately
wants to
correct it.
I was stressed
throughout this
entire course,
but having a
teacher like
Mr. Holt is the only reason I
passed this class. I would recommend
him to anyone
who needs to take Statistics.
